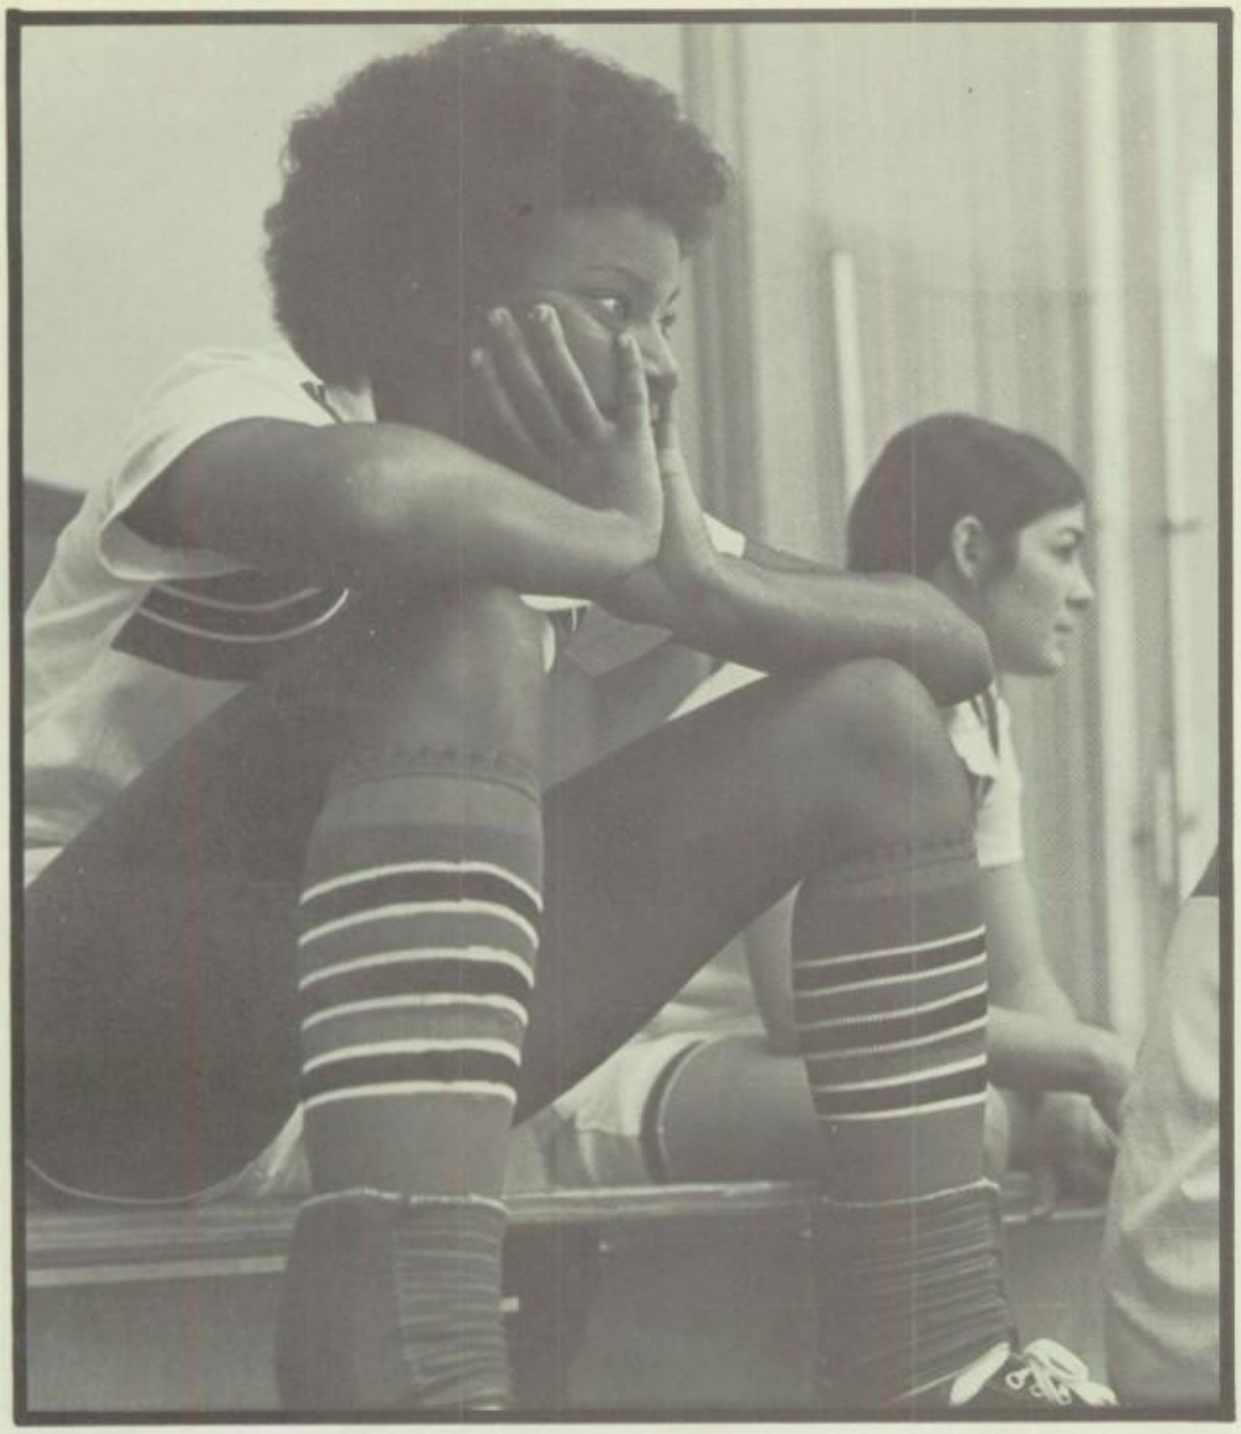
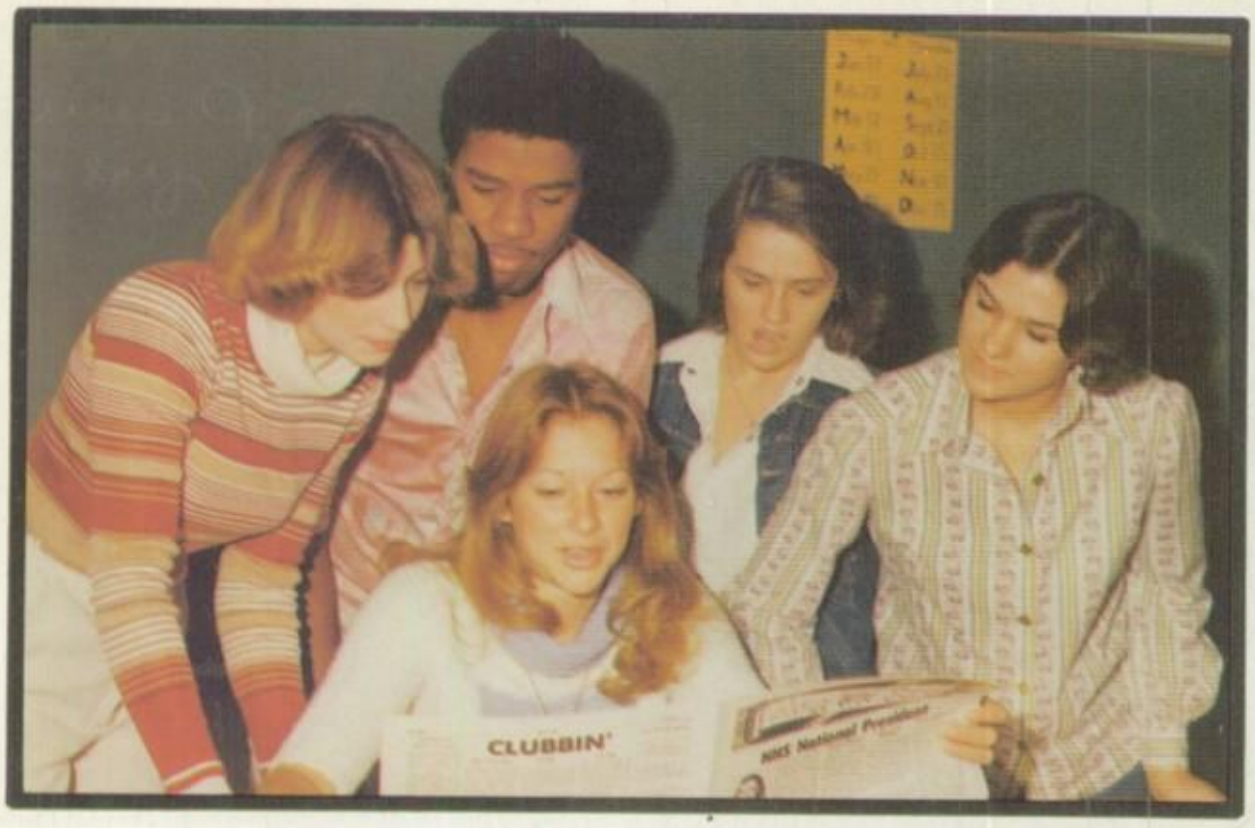
Expressions . . .

Expressions are fleeting moments during the experience of school . . . captured by the camera as it exposes feelings of happiness . . . boredom . . . disgust . . . but, security at NHS . . . home of the Vikings!



Activities . . .

The school community is a composite of everyday experiences . . . concentrated relaxation . . . relaxed concentration . . . door decorations . . . and moments of basketball halftime gossip!

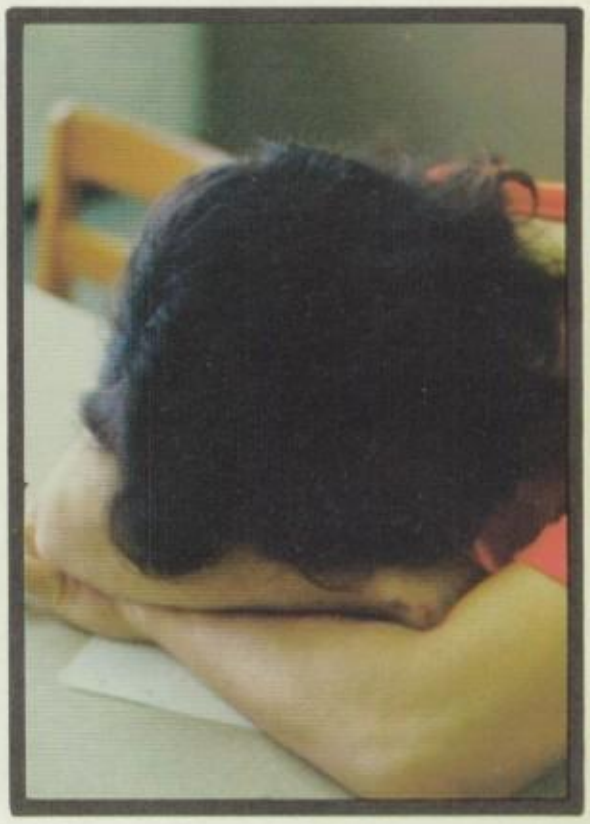


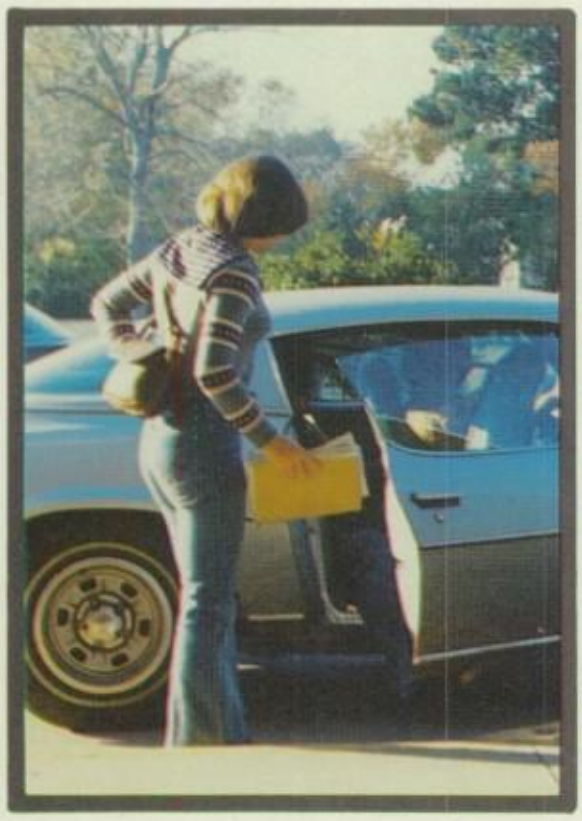
Happiness . . .

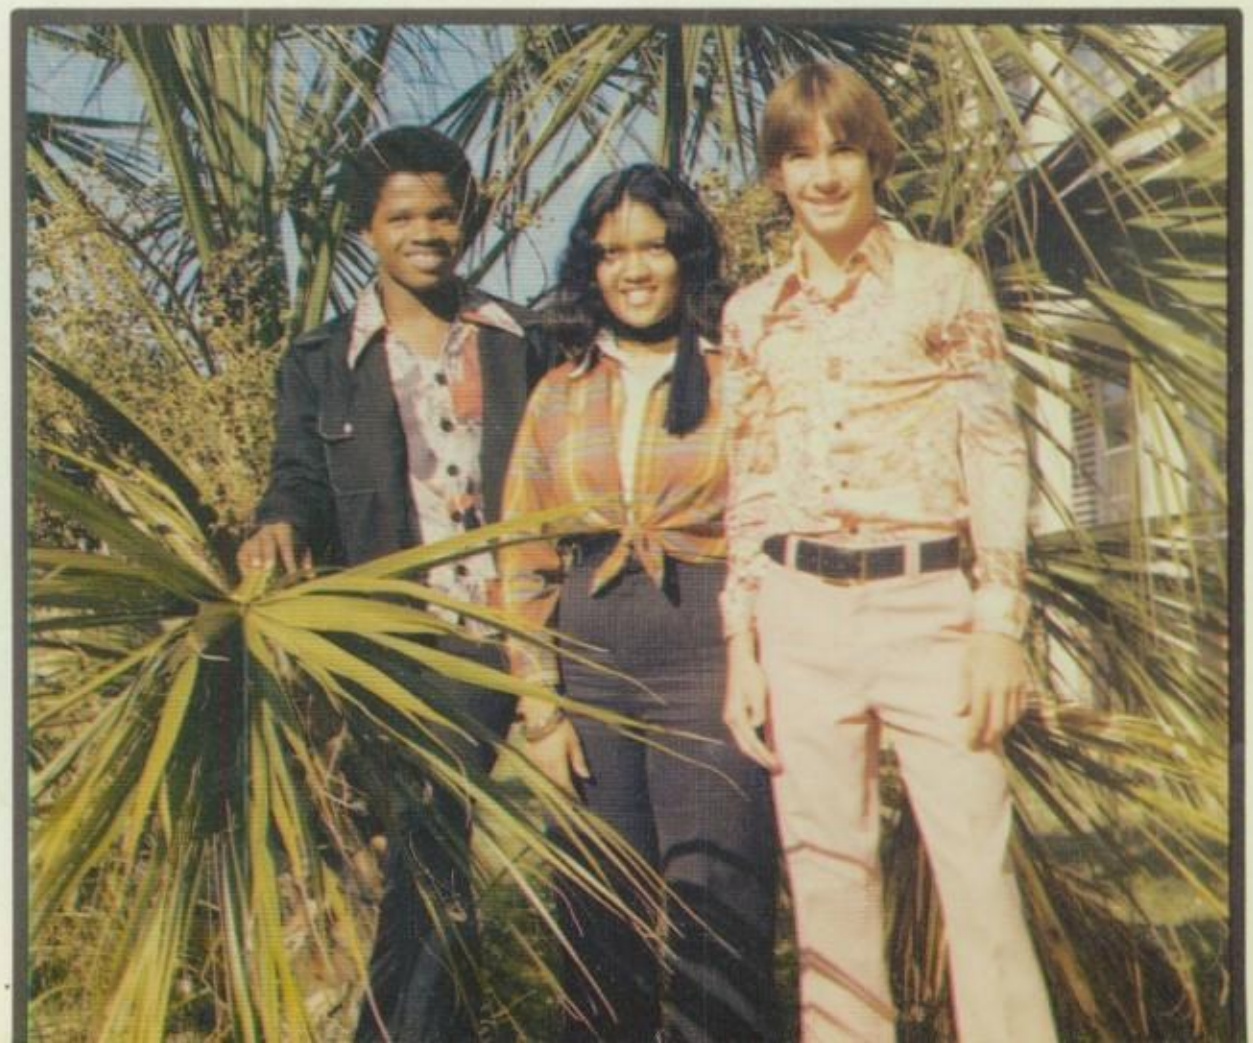
Happiness is . . . reading about yourself in the school newspaper . . . waiting for the bell to ring . . . talking during lunch . . . receiving flowers for being First Maid in the Homecoming Court!

But a moment . . .

It takes but a moment . . . to be recognized as Miss Merry Christmas . . . to catch a much needed snooze . . . to discuss plans for lunch . . . to smile for the camera!

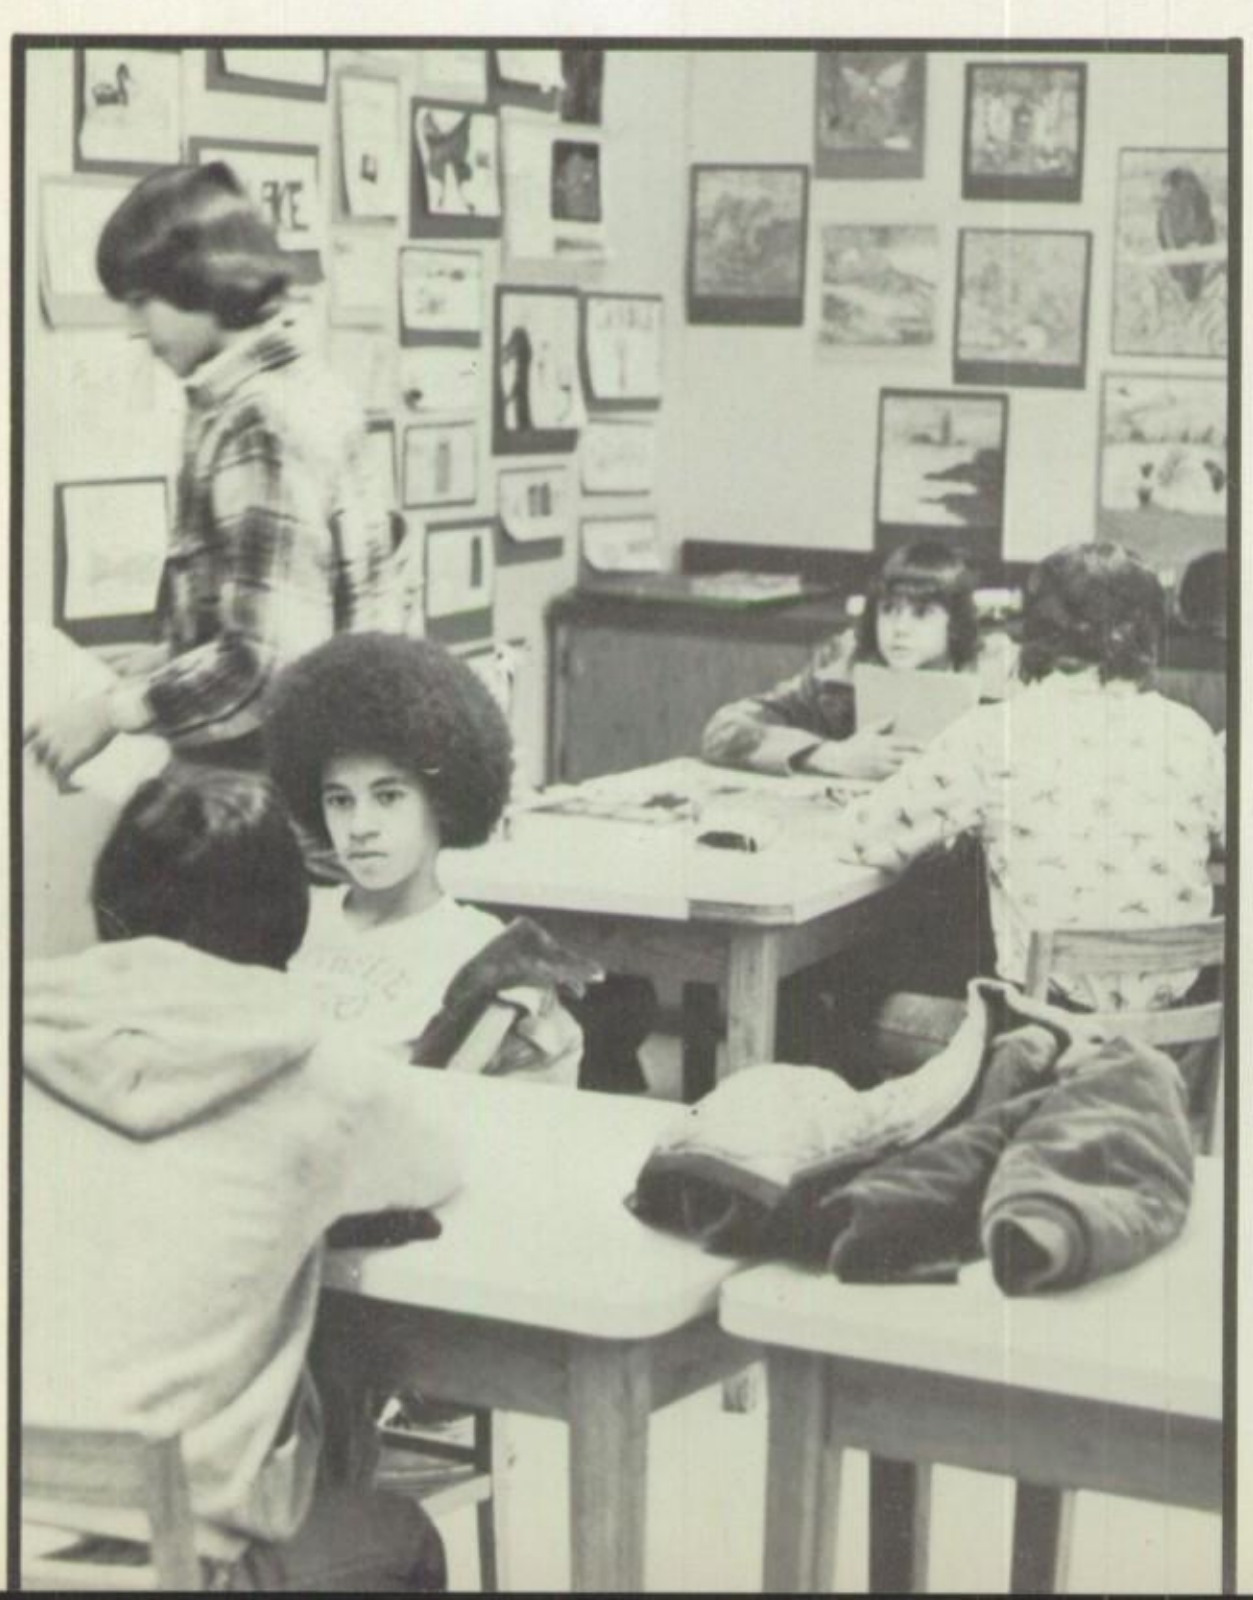


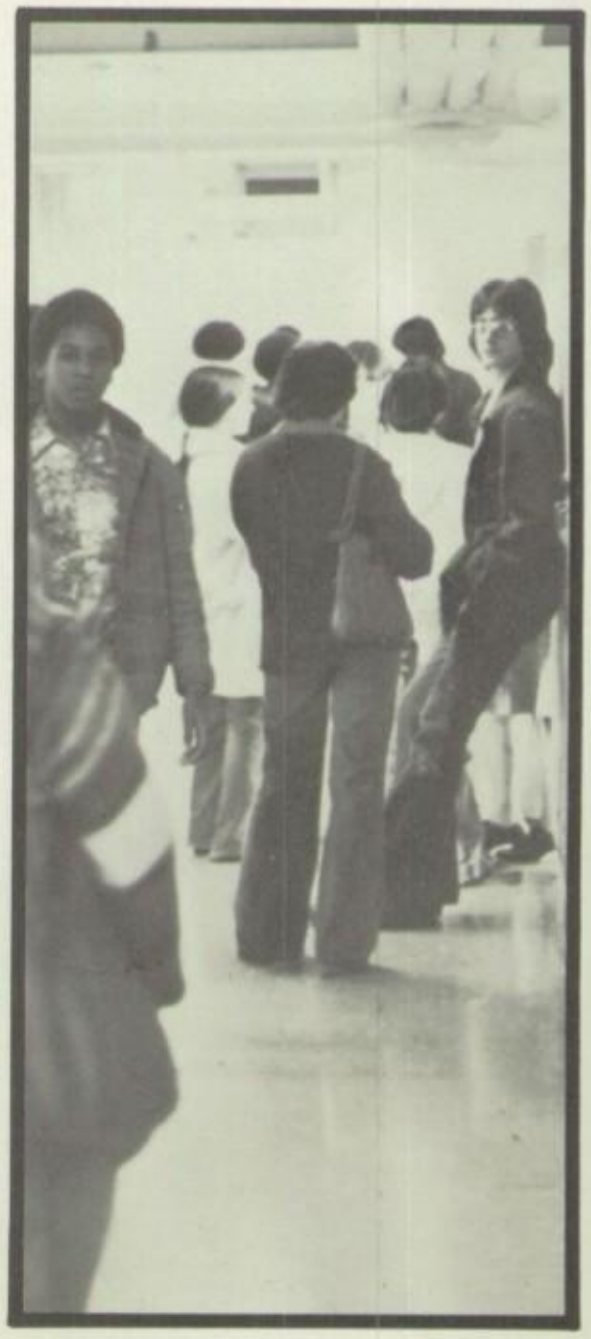




Hold fast the time . . .

There is a time for everything . . . time to perform . . . time to wonder . . . time to concentrate . . . and time to dream!



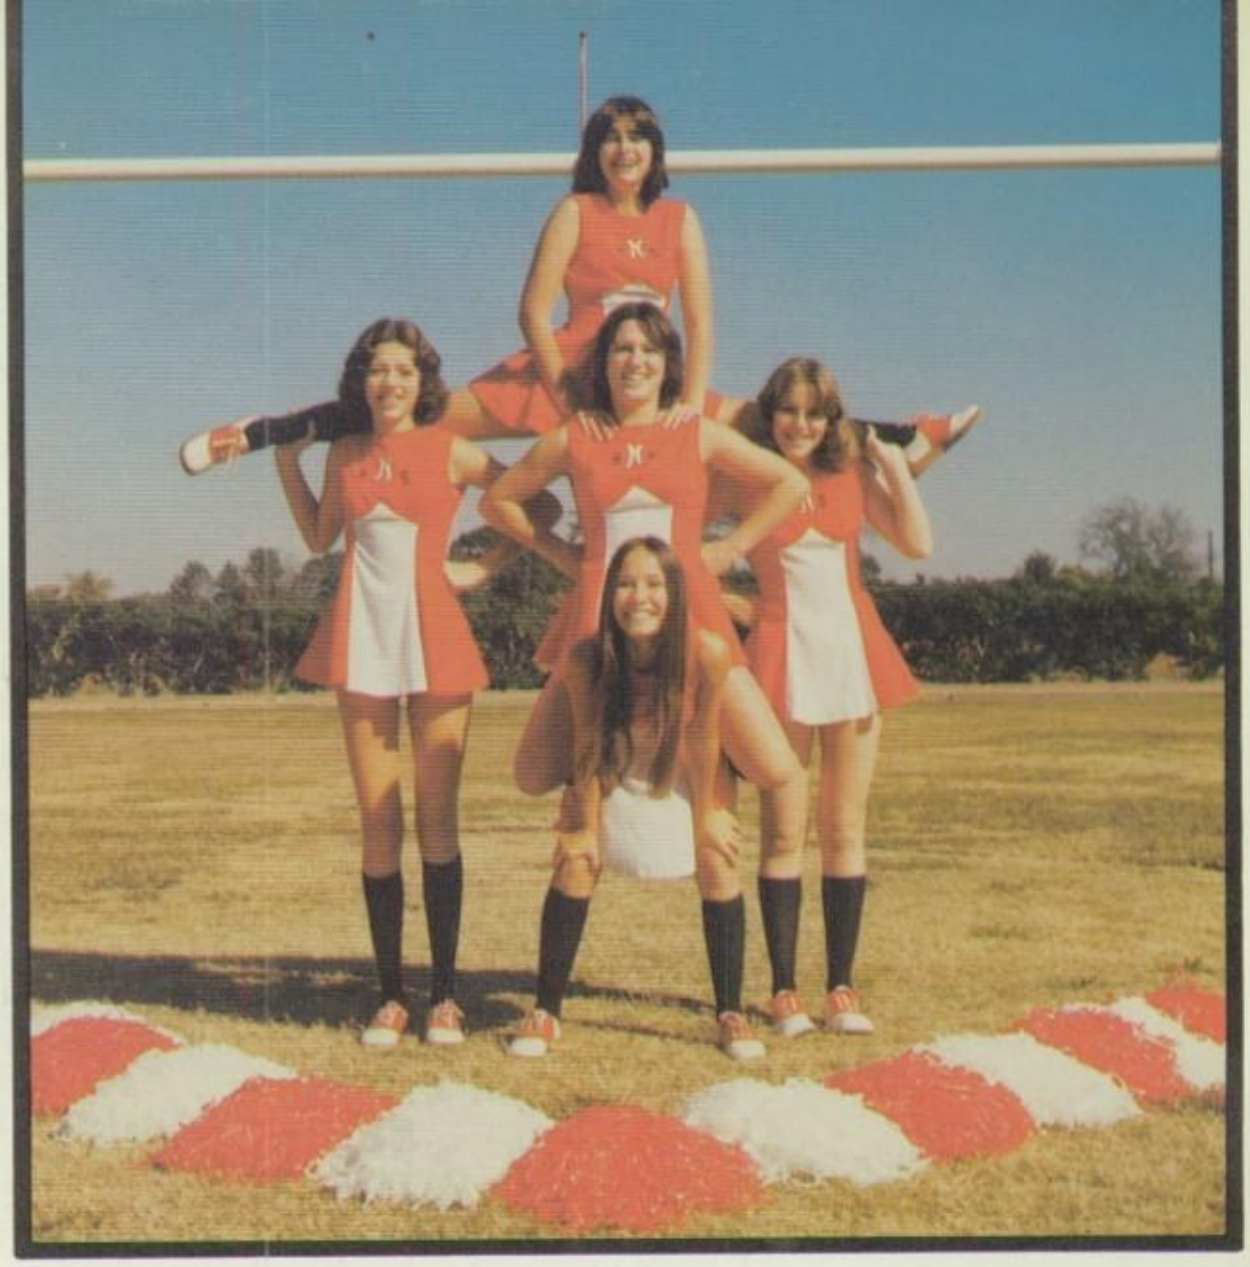


Fun and no fun. . .

Fun is winning the pep rally spirit stick . . . fun is knowing this is the last football game to play . . . fun is playing in a thrilling basketball game . . . and no fun is cleaning the teachers' shelves!

Memories . . .

Being elected 1977 NHS Sweetheart and Beau . . . participating in an exciting football pep rally . . . waiting for lunch . . . and being outstanding students . . . are all memories to be treasured!



Involvement . . .

"Take part," the counselor suggested . . . so NHS students got involved . . . in just being students . . . cheerleading . . . working on the newspaper staff . . . being a member of the volleyball team!

To you, Yolanda,
you already know
all that good stuff
so why should I
go through it again
you know that I wish you best in any
endeavor you choose
cause you've got a
head and you know
how to use it that's
why nobody ever
doubts that you
gonna make it.

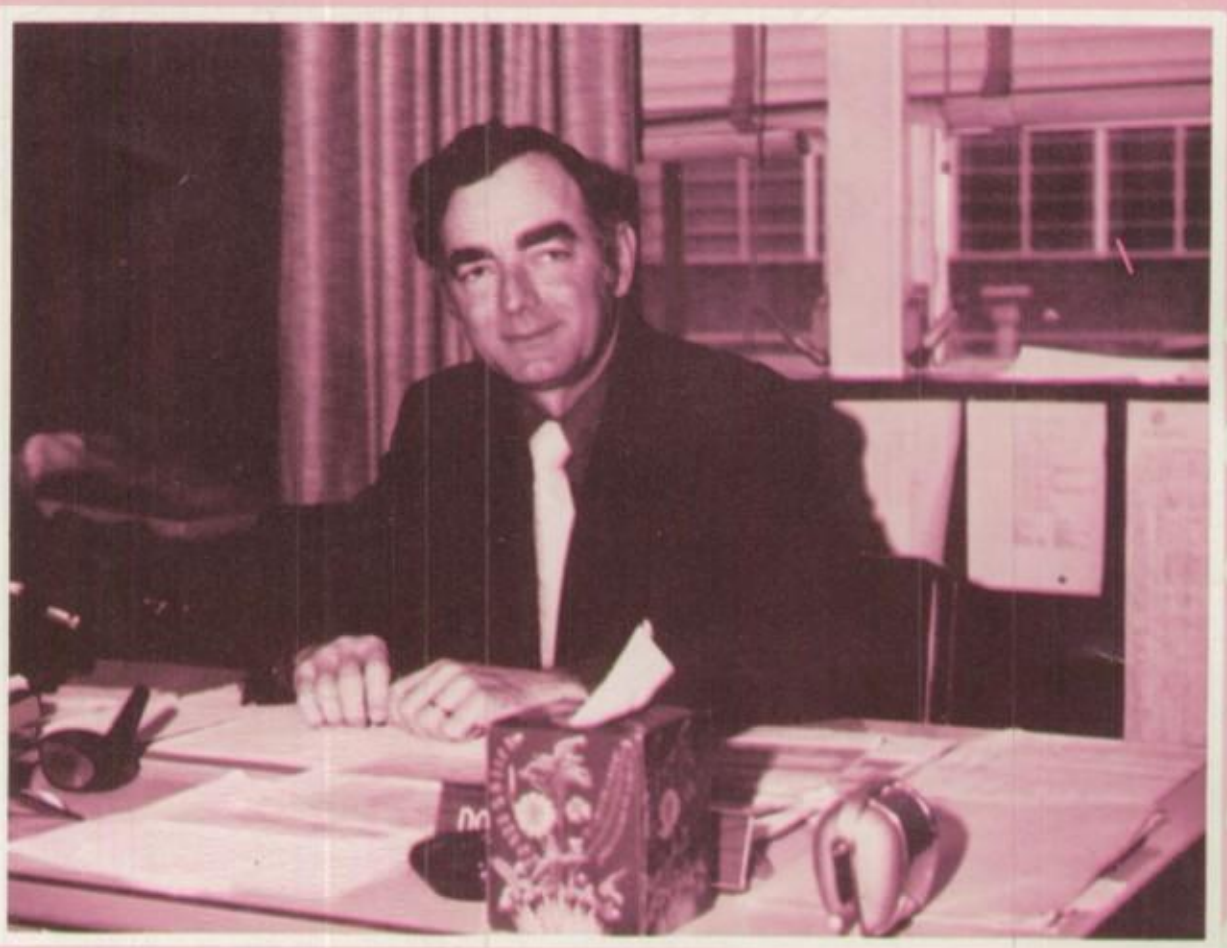
CARROL E. HEBERT



Administration

Principal Ernest Nabers, Jr., Assistant Principals Carroll Hebert and Donald LeBlanc, and Dean of Women Judith Cox are in command of our Viking ship, coping with the day to day problems of leadership and education on the one hand, and on the other, the many problems that can face some 1500 people. Lena Cormier, secretary to Mr. Nabers, assists him in handling his daily affairs. The office runs smoothly because of the efficiency of the four secretaries: Barbara Naomi, Eloise Carricut, Debbie Dupuis, and Charlene Morgan.

Students every year are chosen to represent different schools from different parishes throughout the state of Louisiana to attend Girls' and Boys' State. The following students were chosen to represent Northside: Pamela Boudreaux, Cindi Paul, André Begnaud, Greg Calhoun, and Phillip Lukinovich

It is an honor as well as a privilege to attend this workshop. The main purpose of Girls' and Boys' State is to expand high school students' knowledge about the government and how the laws affect the students in the school and community.

The week consisted of electing city and state officials, walking many miles a day and spending long hours working on different activities. The week ended with a dance and everyone left in tears of happiness and joy!

Captured Memories . . .

We, the Thor Staff, tried to capture our campus as we see it. You know, its not a bad campus even though we have to look at it every day. It is sort of special!

Without the students, there would be no N.H.S. It's the faces that make this year and yearbook different from the last. The goofy faces, the serious faces, the smiling faces, the searching faces, the hurt faces, and the mood behind the expressions, the idea behind the faces. We hope with combined efforts, that we have captured the memories that will linger on a lifetime.

NORTHSIDE

Football . . .

The Viking football team had an over-all 1-8-1 football season. They did not have a losing season, but rather a season of learning. They learned how to stay in and keep hitting when they were hurt, to continue playing football whenever most of the fans left. The record itself does not say, but the team has arrived at the dawning of a new zenith.

That new zenith is none other then the potential to be winners.

The football team displayed a better attitude toward the game, became more competitive, and displayed more hustle and desire to win.

It is better to make one step in the right direction than none at all. The coaches and players that have made that one step are looking forward to the up-coming season, which will be a better and more rewarding one.

Between the innocence of boyhood and the dignity of man, we find a sturdy creature called an athlete. Athletes come in assorted weights, heights, jersey colors, and numbers, but all athletes have the same creed: to play every second of every minute of every period of every game to the best of their ability.

Athletes are found everywhere - underneath, on top of, running around, jumping over, passing by, twisting from or driving through the enemy. Teammates rub them, officials penalize them, coaches criticize them, girls adore them, and mothers worry about them.

An athlete likes game films, trips away from home, practice sessions without pads, hot showers, long runs, whirlpool baths, points after scoring, and the quiet satisfaction which comes from being part of a perfectly executed play. He is not much for wind sprints, sitting on the bench, rainy days, after-game compliments, ankle wraps and scouting reports.

An athlete is a wonderful person - you can critize him, but you can't discourage him. You can defeat his team, but you can't make him quit. You can get him out of a game, but you can't get him out of athletics. Might as well admit it - be coach or fan he is your personal representative, your symbol of fair and hard play. He may not be an All-American, but he is an example of the American way. He is judged, not for his race, religion, social standings, or finances, but by the democratic yardstick of how well he plays and sacrificies individual glory for the overall success of his team.

He is hard working, untiring, determined person doing the very best he can for his school. And when you come out of the stadium grousing and feeling upset that your team has lost, he can make you feel almighty ashamed with just two sincerely spoken words - "WE TRIED."

Randy Aucoin - Wide Receiver

Keith Degeyter - Guard

Alex Montgomery - Tail Back

Football is more than just a two hour game ending in victory, or defeat. Football is long hours under a blazing sun. Football is blood running down the face of a boy who returns to the game because his team needs him. Football is happy shouts of victory and muffled tears of defeat. Being a football player isn't easy - it takes pride, courage, determination, and above all sacrifice. Football builds character, responsibility, and a friendship that lastd a lifetime!

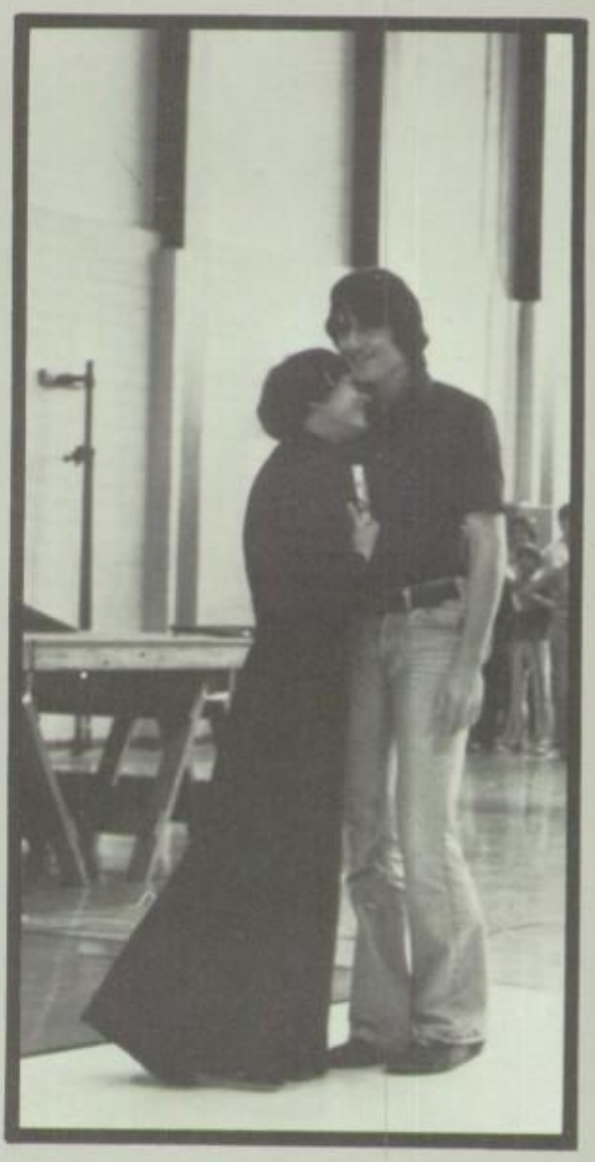
Shakespeare . . .

Once again the N.H.S. student body was very receptive to two Broadway actresses, Ms. Susan Sneider and Ms. Mary Krause, who presented a Shakespeare dramatic program. Before each skit they clearly set the scene and speak of Shakespeare's work. They incorporate students from the audience into their scenes, which is why they have received national attention for their unique treatments of theatre classics. These two young actresses bring Shakespeare to more than a million young Americans on their annual tour.



N.H.S. Salutes Mrs. Cormier

Mrs. Lena Cormier, secretary to the principal of Northside, was presented the distinguished Sertoma Club's Service to Mankind Award. Mrs. Cormier has been a member of the N.H.S. staff since the first day the doors were opened and because of her outstanding qualities which make her a true Viking citizen, the Northside community salutes her!

In her work at school and in the community, Mrs. Cormier always does more than is expected of the average. She possesses that personal magnitude that provides one with the ability to be a leader, an organizer, and above all, she has what is needed to be a person of superior quality. Her efforts to make the best use of these attributes are continuous. She is a charter member of Heart of Acadiana Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. She is also a Blood Service's donor, and a collector for Heart Fund drives. She is a member of several civic and professional organizations.

Because Mrs. Cormier's list of accomplishments in this community is too long to list, the best way to summarize her services is by stating that no one can begin to list all she has done for others!

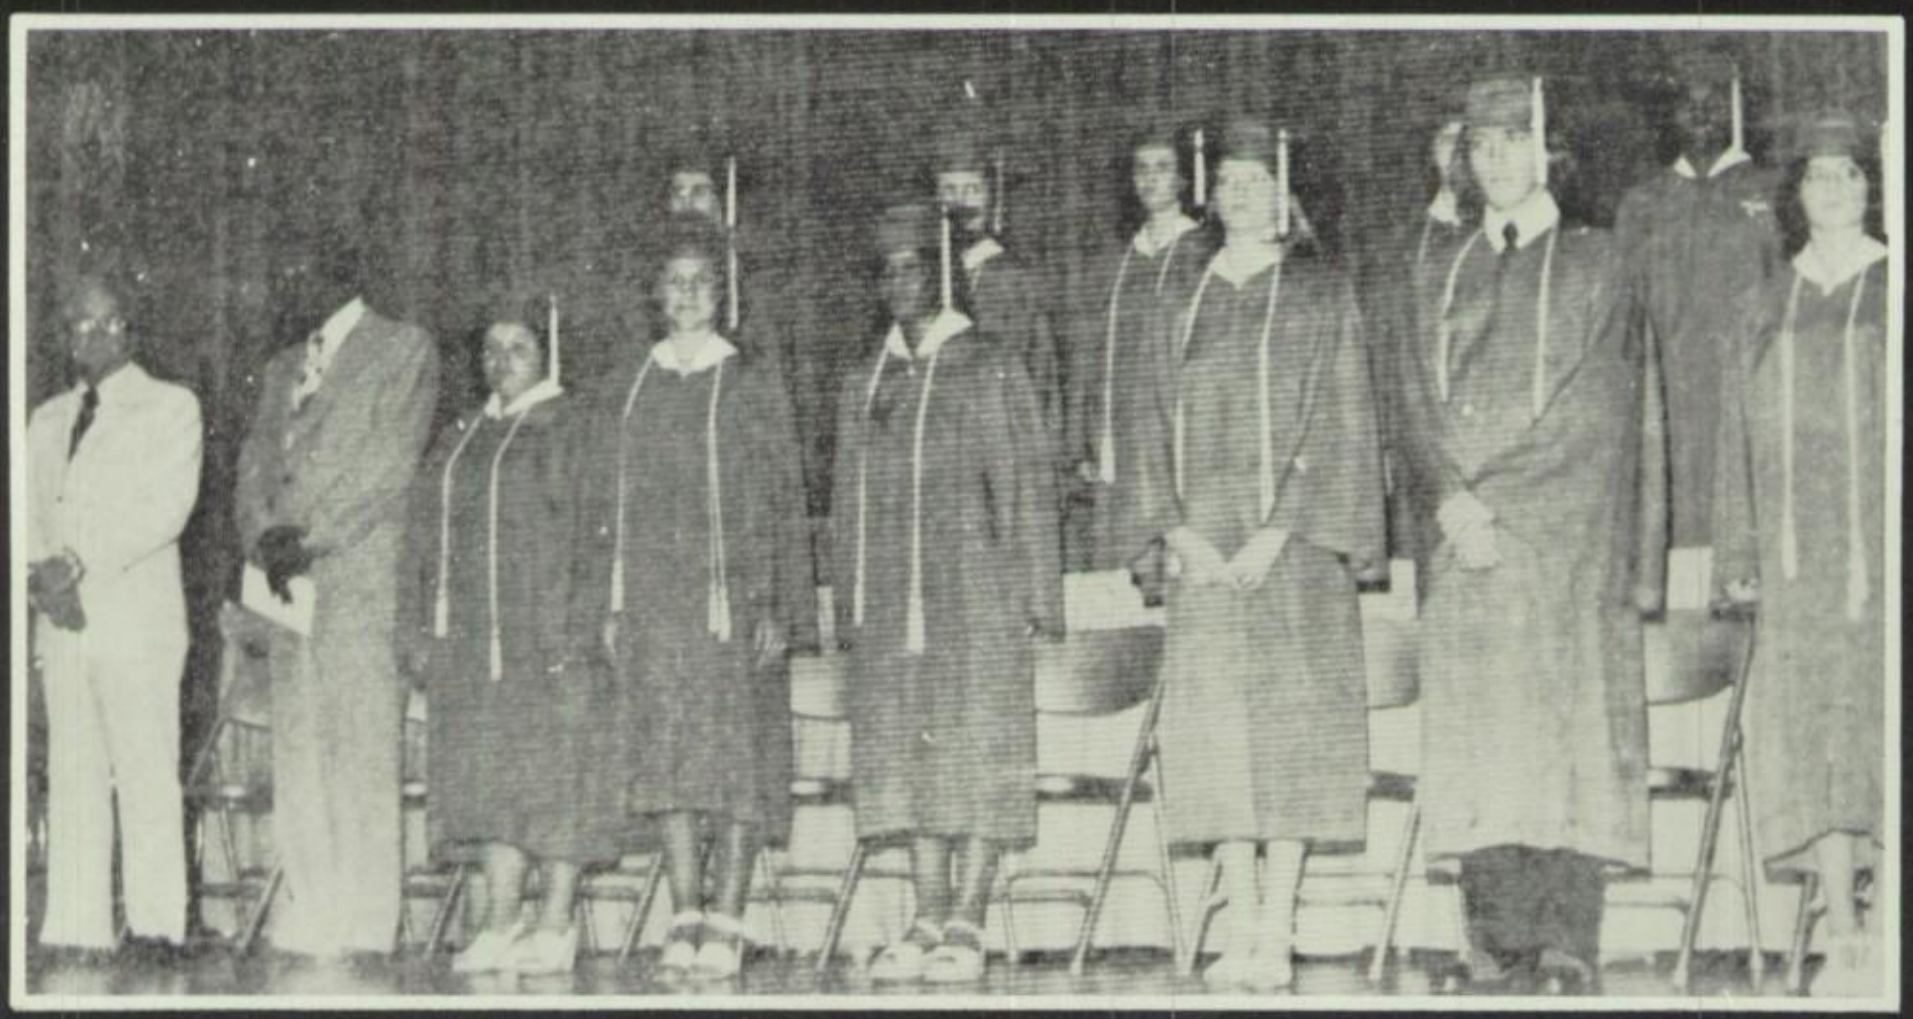
Mr. Harold Gauthe, Superintendent of Lafayette Parish Schools awarded diplomas to 295 graduating seniors. The ceremony closed with the benediction given by Reverend E. D. Smith, Pastor of Mallalieu United Methodist Church.



Graduation has marked the real beginning of the learning experience, rather than its end. We all received a diploma certifying that we have completed a certain phase of formal education. Now comes the challenging tasks - for now we must go out into a world where these values will often be challenged or mocked.

Being a graduate has in it the happiest and saddest times in our lives. The happy times are when we walked across the stage with twelve years of our educational lives behind us. We can look forward to being free and independent.

Then, we are faced with a decision which will be the most important decision we will have to make because it will determine what we will be doing for the rest of our lives. Some of us will travel many miles to attend college, while others will remain in Lafayette. Some will attend a trade school, while others will immediately get married, and still others will find a job. Whatever occupation or endeavor you choose - strive to be the best. Always be yourself in spite of others, and you will experience much peace and happiness. We can't all be stars, it's true, but within arms length - there's so much we can do - to make the world a better place, where we understand each other, and view every stranger as a friend - and every man a brother.

The world gives us so much to live for, and so often we let the beauty of life pass us by. Think of Jonathan Livingston Seagull - he was free. Through his thoughts he expressed himself. he shared his inner strength with others. Why not let yourself do this? Give yourself to others. Reach out - for people need people. We are a small group in relation to the rest of the world, but we cam accomplish a lot.

I am only one - but still I am one - I cannot do everything - but I can do something - and because I cannot do everything - I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.

If we as individuals would set goals for ourselves, we would be able to meet these to our fullest capacity with a direct result of self-satisfaction in knowing that we did our best to become the best that we are capable of becoming. We should all strive to do our special somethings that we can do, and we as a world will accomplish a lot.

We can be ourselves with others and teach them to do the same. Take what you have learned and share it with your friends. In this way we can do our part to make life more precious and beautiful for all.

After tonight, we will begin to witness the sad times that lay ahead. They are, of course, when we leave our family and friends. We must go out into the world and make new friends which can be difficult and heartbreaking. For some of us, miles and time will separate us from the friends we have now. Some of us may even lose the people we love the most.

After tonight, the doors of freedom will be open . . . FREEDOM - it's a driving force within us, but yet we sometimes get so wrapped up in everything around us that we forget to give ourselves the time to be free.

Sometimes, we feel as if we have gone a long way, until we suddenly realize that it's just the beginning.

Happiness and sadness accompany me with each step. Soon I must leave and move on leaving all I've grown to love. I think of the faces, most of whom I will never see again, will soon be lost, lost in my memory.

Well I guess it's time to say good-bye for now, we've gone through good and bad together - with many a hard fought day.

So-long my friends, I hate to say good-bye. But I'll have to leave you now, while it's not too hard to smile. We've had a laugh together, but we've got to take our lead, so we go our own ways, down separate roads.

Remember this your lifetime through, tomorrow there will always be more to do. But failure awaits, for all who stay, with some success made yesterday. Tomorrow we must try again.

I would like to take this time and extend my deepest thanks and appreciation to the Graduates of 1977 for giving me the opportunity to serve you throughout our high school years. You made me who I am today. Words really can't express my gratitude ----------THANK YOU.

The Northside High School Student Body and Faculty would like to thank the beautiful people who have worked so hard to make the Viking community a better one. These people, who give up a part of their lives to make things in life at Northside a little easier, are truly dedicated supporters - the BACKER'S CLUB! These people have done so many things for this school, that it is hard to find the right words to say thank you. All we can do is to say it as often as possible; so again, THANKS!

Good morning yesterday
You wake up and time has slipped away,
And suddenly it's hard to find,
the memories you left behind
Remember? . . . do you remember?

The laughter and the tears,
the shadows of misty yester-years.
The good times and the bad you've seen,
and all the others in between.
Remember? . . . do you remember
the times of your life!

Reach back for the joy and the sorrow,
put them away in your mind.
For memories are times that you borrow,
to spend when you get to tomorrow.
Here comes the setting sun,
the seasons are passing one by one;
So gather moments while you may,
collect the dreams you dream today.
Remember? . . . will you remember
the times of your life?

Yolanda,

Well, We're Finally Seniors! It's our last year and I kind of hate to see it pass by so fast. Just think only 3 more football games to cheer at, and that's it. Remember Cheerleader camp, the good times, bad times but most of all the time we ~~an~~ were awarded the Spirit Stick. I guess all those bad times speak for themselves because had it not been for them there would have not been a Spirit Stick for Us.

Keep Smiling, You deserve the best life has to Offer. God Bless You and Be With You Always!
